Counsel:

I have attached the following documents to this email.

- 1) Doctor's Note for Mr. Zarling.
- 2) Fifth Third bank statements from July 2017 to June 2019. Note that there is a letter from Fifth Third regarding the cost to obtain the statements from January 2015 to June 2017. The cost is $150.00 which is 16% of Mr. Zarling's monthly income. Will your client be paying the cost to obtain these remaining statements.
- 3) Auto insurance policy from January 2019 to July 2019.
- 4) Credit report from Transunion and Experian obtained on June 26, 2019. I was unable to obtain the Equifax credit report.
- 5) Documents relating to the worker's compensation settlement.

Debtor has no documents to provide for the following requests:

- 1-Does not apply.
- 2-Provided to the extent financially possible.
- 3-It is my understanding he has only received SSI since 2015.
- 4-It is my understanding that Debtor has not filed income taxes for the last three years.
- 5-It is my understanding that the Debtor has not owned any vehicle between January 1, 2014, and now.
- 6-We provided an insurance policy for the car he borrows from time to time.
- 7-Provided two of the three reports requested.
- 8-It is my understanding that Debtor was never married.
- 9-See attached: ZarlingRider9
- 10-Unable to locate any documents at this time. I will let you know if that changes.

Sincerely,

Michael R. Colter, II
